What is Coffee Parchment?

Coffee Parchment connects every link of the coffee chain. Sellers list cherry, parchment, green or roasted coffee with photos, cup scores and a full spec sheet. Buyers compare lots from many origins, ask for samples and make offers. When an offer is accepted, both sides see each other's phone and email and agree the contract, payment and shipping directly.

Who it is for

Farmers and cooperatives

Sell cherry, parchment or green coffee directly and reach buyers beyond your local market.

Washing stations and mills

Buy cherry or parchment, and sell what you process to the next link in the chain.

Exporters and traders

Source lots, list graded green coffee and find new importers.

Roasters and importers

Find coffee direct from origin, compare lots and post what you want to buy.

Trade safely

- Coffee Parchment does not buy or sell coffee or hold money; contracts are agreed between members.
- Always approve a pre-shipment sample of the actual lot.
- Use clear contracts and safe payment terms such as a letter of credit or cash against documents.
- Never pay the full amount in advance to someone you don't know.
